1. Narrative description of the Prop 28 arts education program(s) funded. (2500 character limit).

Palm Lane remains committed to providing a high quality educational program that encompasses the Arts and Music to all students. The purchase of music equipment, including ukuleles, and percussion instruments will allow for expansion of Palm Lane's music program by providing students among all grade levels with increased opportunities to engage with varying musical instruments. Exposing students to a variation of musical instruments will foster higher levels of engagement to the arts. Palm Lane will continue to secure partnerships within the community to further develop its arts and music program by incorporating theatre and additional opportunities to learn varied instruments and music genres.
